ALL SEASONS ORCHESTRA

High Fives!

After realising that really, by around their fifth symphony composers generally seemed to have got rather good at what they do we've been exploring the works of some of the most popular composers of the classical repertoire including:

Mozart's 5th Symphony

Beethoven's 5th Symphony

Tchaikovsky's 5th Symphony

the strings even played the gorgeous Adagietto from Mahler's 5th Symphony!

In May we're set to round off the series with Schubert's beautifully lyrical 5th Symphony. Do join us on 15th May in (old) Earswick Village Hall.

Not quite raising the roof but...

It is reported that the premiere performance of Haydn's Symphony 102 was so exciting that a chandelier forgot that it's job was to hang from the ceiling and kind of... well... let go...

We've double checked to make sure and there are no chandeliers in the venue we've booked for our event on Sunday 19th June so you should be safe to join us!

Hannah's Bluegrass Band

If you're wondering what Hannah gets up to when she's not conducting / playing with us you can go and see her in action with her band Union Central.

"With it's undue emphasis on technical perfection, rather than the expression of content, today's musical training is nothing more than authorised hypochondria".
