

ALL SEASONS ORCHESTRA

Summer Tiiiiiiiiime... Could you hear me singing it?

It's gloriously sunny outside as I write this, it probably won't be by the time you read it but hey-ho such is life!

What an exciting time it is at All Seasons at the moment. We've been looking at Dvorak 8, burbling our way through Clarie de Lune, jiggling with Millie, diddling through Mozart's Marriage of Figaro and this weekend battled our way valiantly through Beethoven's 3rd Symphony – no mean feat but well worth the effort; definitely one to bring out again, I know there were a number of you who were keen to play it but weren't able to make this event. And look what's coming up – a new venue and our first concert. It's all happening!

We're Moving!

We've been rather squashed in our current premises for quite some time now and our fabulous committee has spent a lot of time looking for a suitable new home for ASO. And we have finally secured a brilliant new home: Burholme Community Hub (Bad Bargain Lane, YO31 0GW). We'll be starting in our new home on our first session back after the half term break. So we'll be warming our new place on: Thursday 4th June, 7.30 – 9.30 as usual.

From Behind the Baton

Earlier this term we held our first ever conducting workshop and it was brilliantly well attended, so much so that we had to extend our hall booking to fit everyone in! Well done to everyone who was brave enough to stand up at the front and give it a go.

Some of you may remember Hannah from the conducting day, and from violining in some of our other events – she's going to be coming and doing a bit of conducting with us this term. Here's a little hello from Hannah:

"I had the pleasure of hearing about the wonderful music-making opportunities at ASO when Cat came to talk to us while I was completing my Community Music MA at York. Since then, I've had a fantastic time joining in on events, and most recently, on the conducting day. I look forward to working and playing with you all very soon, and getting to know you all whilst sharing our love and passion for music!"

Saturday 27th June - Our first Concert!

We will be playing a family concert in the beautiful St. Wilfrid's Church on Strensall Garrison.

Rehearsal 1 – 4 // Performance 4.30pm

We'll be choosing a programme appropriate to the players who sign up and I know lots of you are keen to practice in advance – so please sign up as soon as you know you can come.
